Introduction

The meeting held at Murtala Muhammad library Ahmadu Bello way Kano in attendance are representatives of either (pensioners, CBOs, Women group, Youth, PWDs, Traditional and Religious Leaders from 9 Local Government Areas within the Kano emirate, which include Kano Municipal, Tarauni, Dala, Nassarawa, Fagge, Gwale, Kumbotso, Ungogo and Dawakin Kudu.

The town hall meeting facilitated by Salisu Yusuf, Ibrahim Garba Maryam, Bilkisu Ado Zangō, Abdullahi Sa'ad and Tahir Sale on behalf of Kano Budget working group.

Meeting objectives

1. To ensure effective and improved service delivery.
2. Examination of the State government budget allocation and spending priorities of the state budget preparation.
3. increasing roles of, and opportunities for, non-governmental actors, especially CBOs/CSOs, to actively engage in development and governance agenda;
4. Engage in new public finance practices that supported greater transparency in budget systems and a larger role for the independent oversight offered by civil society and legislatures and;
5. Ensure rapid proliferation of decentralization and devolution that brought budgeting closer to communities and made it more real for them (IBP, 2001).
6. Collect Citizens Needs and demands analyses and present to Government for inclusion in the Proposed 2022 budget

Presentation and plenary session

The consultative meeting was facilitated by Kano Budget Working Group brief about KBWG, and its activities and areas of intervention was facilitated by Malam Salisu Yusuf, he further explains that Getting citizens input into the formulation of budget started years ago in Kano State. In the year 2015 by citizen's group with fewer LGAs involved; which later Engage Citizen Pillar Partnership to Engage, Reform and Learn- ECP/PERL supported the effort and increased the coverage to 34 LGAs in 2016 and in 2018 covered all 44 LGAS

Opening remarks, by Malam Najib Ado from State Ministry of Planning and Budget (MoPB), welcome all participants to the meeting, which further explain the two side of the budget that is recurrent and capital budget of which the capital is more of people benefit but he said we cannot do that and until when we engage our self in understanding budget process.

He further explain to the participants that the whole exercise was to fulfillment of the 'State Fiscal Transparency, Accountability and Sustainability Programme,' of participatory budget. He therefore encouraged participants to be determined and committed in the conduct of getting community members input for the 2022 budget formulation.

Salisu Yusuf also reiterate that participants should be called at any time and ask some questions at any time which will give the exercise accountability of engaging and participation during the town hall consultation meeting where he mentioned last years' experience which must of the participants sampled and asked questions for clarification but they forgot their participation, he therefore called be on alert at any time.

Kano Budget working Group shared the template and took participants through on how to populate the Citizen's input template for 2022 Priority by considering each demand based on community or area of demands, which at every stage, explanations was given to get it right.

Comments, Questions and clarifications was observed instantly

1. Need to involve citizens in budget tracking especially project that abundant
2. There is need to engaged and sensitized politician at all the time
3. Engaged sojoin Baka in the budget process and tracking of projects because they will add value in it
4. They need to have a forum for reporting project by CBOs
5. Another question from PWDs member that how are they going to get all their inputs into 2022 budget is captured

At the end all citizens input template for 2022 budget was filled and returned for further analysis
